FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TECHNOLOGY AWARDS

CHARLESTON, IL--Six industrial technology students at Eastern Illinois University are the recipients of awards from the University's School of Technology.

Eastern is located an hour south of Champaign-Urbana in Charleston, a city of 20,000 noted for its friendliness. A residential university, Eastern's highest priority is excellence in teaching. The university's 10,000 students live on an attractive, safe 320-acre campus with a full range of extracurricular activities. Graduation rates are well above state and national averages.

NOTE TO THE EDITOR (Roselle Daily Herald): Mike A. Pavlick, son of Bill and Nancy Pavlick of Roselle, has been awarded the Roy E. Ehram Scholarship from the School of Technology at Eastern Illinois University. The Ehram Scholarship is presented annually to a deserving student in the School of Technology in honor of Mr. Ehram who served as a postmaster for the U.S. Postal Service and had an intense interest in the education of people in the technical careers. Pavlick is a 1988 graduate of Conant High School in Hoffman Estates, and a senior at Eastern majoring in industrial technology. Besides his academic achievements, he has been involved in the Student Chapter of the Society of Manufacturing Engineers and the Dean's Student Advisory Council.
